

Day 3

1. Reread verses 23-25
2. Mark all of the things that God is doing in this passage. List them below.

3. Reread verse 11. What is Moses doing?

4. We see that Moses shares in God's "looking" or "seeing" of the Hebrew people in their slavery. What are some things that we should be "looking" with God's eyes about?

5. Read Genesis 9:12-16. In this passage, God is said to "remember" his covenant with the whole earth when he sees the rainbow in the sky. What does it mean that God "remembers"?

6. What are things that you need God to remember about you?

Exodus 2:11-25

11One day, when Moses had grown up, he went out to his people and looked on their burdens, and he saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his people. 12He looked this way and that, and seeing no one, he struck down the Egyptian and hid him in the sand. 13When he went out the next day, behold, two Hebrews were struggling together. And he said to the man in the wrong, "Why do you strike your companion?" 14He answered, "Who made you a prince and a judge over us? Do you mean to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?" Then Moses was afraid, and thought, "Surely the thing is known." 15When Pharaoh heard of it, he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from Pharaoh and stayed in the land of Midian. And he sat down by a well. 16Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters, and they came and drew water and filled the troughs to water their father's flock. 17The shepherds came and drove them away, but Moses stood up and saved them, and watered their flock. 18When they came home to their father Reuel, he said, "How is it that you have come home so soon today?" 19They said, "An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds and even drew water for us and watered the flock." 20He said to his daughters, "Then where is he? Why have you left the man? Call him, that he may eat bread.” 21And Moses was content to dwell with the man, and he gave Moses his daughter Zipporah. 22She gave birth to a son, and he called his name Gershom, for he said, “I have been a sojourner in a foreign land.”

23During those many days the king of Egypt died, and the people of Israel groaned because of their slavery and cried out for help. Their cry for rescue from slavery came up to God. 24And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. 25God saw the people of Israel - and God knew.

Day 1

1. Read John 20:1-18 and
 - A. Identify who is in this passage
 - B. Observe what is taking place
 - C. Observe where it is taking place
 - D. Using a colored pencil or pen, mark repeated words using a similar color or mark.
 - i. Mark the word “Egyptian” in one color
 - ii. Mark “Hebrew” or “Israelites” in another color
 - iii. Pay special attention to the “verbs” or “action words of the passage this week. Mark verbs in a special color
 - E. Write any questions that come to mind in the margins

Day 2

1. Moses intervenes in three different situations in these verses. What are the three situations? In what ways are they similar and in what ways are they different?

2. Each of these situations had some type of injustice that Moses was looking to fix. Injustice can be defined as a decision or situation that is unfair or lacking equality. What are some modern day decisions or situations that qualify as “injustices”?

3. How should we be responding to these injustices?
